BONSPIEL PROGRESS

The first week of active curling has now been recorded as history in the '51-'52 season. We have seen the usual quota of stellar curling and from there on down to the hogged rocks of the beginner leads.

For sheer drama on the ice, however, it is hard to beat the one in which Steve Valigrotsky was leading Nels Allen 10-0 at the fourth end, only to find himself on the losing side of a 12-10 score at the finish of the eight end match.

The Bonspiel has seen an unusually large number of favourites pushed into the "left side" of the elimination chart. There should be some hot games ahead in the chicken brackets as such proven skips as Wellings, Dodge, Olsen and Boudreau begin eliminating themselves.

On the winners' side a good match shapes up Friday at 7:00 p.m. when Ostling and Pineault cross brooms. McColl has moved out to the third winners' bracket by eliminating Roddy and Lohr bested Craig to also step into the third bracket.

Skips are requested to keep in close touch with the Draw Committee and to arrange their matches as rapidly as possible. As of this writing, no games have been scheduled for the week-end, but as winners are determined tonight and tomorrow night, the winning skips should immediately begin arranging ice for their next game. Ray Williams will be assigning ice for Bonspiel games on Saturday and Sunday afternoons and evenings.

During the mill shut-down the Ladies will have their Bonspiel.
