

CHRISTMAS CONCERT

(cont. from page 4)

Completing the program was a play entitled "The Dyspeptic Ogre" acted by Grades 7 and 8. This play was taken directly from the school reader and had been studied as part of the pupils' literature. The program was closed by the singing of "God Save the King".

INTELLECTUAL SNOB - a man who won't speak to a pretty girl on a train because he doesn't like the book she's reading.

WHO'S MOVING IN?

(During the next three weeks we'll give a little sketch on those important persons in our community referred to as new tenants, many of whom have taken up residence in the new Lakeview Subdivision.)

Doug Thompson, wife Thursa, and children Carolyn and "Roddy" after a long wait are now on Elizabeth Ave. Doug hails from Liverpool, N. S. and is a Maintenance Dept. Machinist at the Mill, having joined the Company on June 30, 1950.

Alex Marquis, wife Jessie and children Sharon, Ronald and Barry are now on Fort Garry Rd. Alex came from the Lakehead City of Port Arthur and has been a Maintenance Dept. Welder since March 5, 1951.

John Dejonghe, wife Annie and sons Lloyd and Andrew, are now on Elizabeth Ave. John was employed for some time at Eagle River before coming to Terrace Bay, and has been on the Mill payroll since July 7/50, now a janitor in Service Department.

Len Crockford and wife Norma (Steno Pool) are on Elizabeth Ave. Len, who was here for a brief time in construction days (1947) worked in Sault Ste. Marie for two years before joining the Mill on November 28/49 where he is now a Bleachery 2nd Helper. Both Len and Norma look on Thessalon, Ontario as "home".

Ken Turner, wife Margaret and daughter Valerie Ann now reside on Elizabeth Ave. Ken hails from Kentville, N.S. and sub-let for some time with the Wilsons on Hudson Dr. He now works as an electrician's helper in Maintenance and has been at the mill since December 31/49.

Mel Nicol, wife Irene, and children Lyle and Paulette Louise living on Fort Garry Rd. Mel was here for a time in the 1946 construction days and has rejoined the Company on April 17/51 working as a Delivery Man in the Warehouse.
