LARGEST CIRCULATION IN TERRACE BAY

January 3, 1952.

HOCKEY HEADLINES

Even the ungrammatical words "We dood it" might be forgiven this week as the Terrace Bay Hockey fans finally got a chance to shout in earnest. The Rockets pounced on Schreiber for a hard-fought 3 - 1 win. It's taken four years to do it but mayhap, as we said last week, this is our year. Let's all get behind this fighting 1952 edition of the Rockets and carry them forward to many more wins in the current season. In Saturday's game, individual stars perhaps should not be singled out, but we must mention the work of Bob Weaver in goal for the Rockets who broke the hearts of Schreiber attackers several times when their swarming type of attack was at its height. Next date to remember is Tuesday, January 8th at Schreiber Arena, 8:30 p.m., Terrace Bay Rockets vs Nipigon. Our boys promise to do their best -- fans, do the same and get out and cheer!

HOSPITAL NEWS

The stork struck two as the clock struck four on New Year's morning at Terrace Bay Hospital. Congratulations double to Mr. & Mrs. Donald Keating of Jackfish who now have twin baby girls to add to the population at Jackfish. Mrs. Greta Keating is a daughter of Willie Heinrich of the Wood Handling Department.

LIMERICK CONTEST PRIZE WINNERS

There were 34 entries in the December Limerick Contest and by the time the Contest Committee had carefully considered each entry without knowledge of who the entrants were, some considerable amount of time was consumed. By a process of elimination, all but four entries were gradually ruled out and then a vote was taken to decide the winner who turned out to be L. H. Pryor of Schreiber. His prize - $5.00 for submitting the line: "No safety, you always pay dear". Second prize of $2.00 went to Malcolm Craig of Terrace Bay who coined the phrase "The moral of the story is quite clear". Reg. Cotton entered the line: "Make sure it's not you this year" and thereby tagged on the 3rd prize of $1.00. Congratulations to the winners and to everyone else - try again!

The January Limerick Contest, for which similar prizes will be awarded, may be entered by any LongLac employee, their families and all other residents of Terrace Bay. Just fill in a last line, and drop in either box reserved for Terrace Bay News copy located at the Hudson's Bay Store or the Mill entrance.

"It looks like a good year," Bill said,
"For I feel like I'm getting ahead."
But he reached from a ladder -
Now, he's wiser but sadder,
