

WHO'S MOVING IN?

No. 2 of a series of brief sketches on the new tenants moving into houses in Terrace Bay townsite:

Don Tamminen, wife Hilja and daughter Barbara are now on Pine Crescent. Don comes from the Lakehead, having worked on timber operations at Auden and Clarkdon. He joined the Mill's Wood Handling Department on May 1, 1951.

Manson Dye, wife Rose and daughter Judith Gail now living on Laurier Ave. "Manny" came from Summerside, P.E.I. to work with Fraser Brace in the 1948 construction days and has been on the Company's Structural crew since its formation on March 3/49. Starting as a helper, he has had Millwright Classification since May 5/49.

George Robinson, wife Parmelia, and son George Alfred, now living on Pine Crescent, came originally from Netherhill, Sask. but spent most of his life around Kenora. George joined the company on March 22/51 as a vacation relief labourer in the Pulp Department and has now worked his way along to Caustic Helper.

George Daniels and wife Helen now residing on Elizabeth Ave. hail from Fort William, where George worked for some years with Paterson Steamship Company. He joined Long-Lac on May 1/50, and is a Junior Tradesman Millwright on the Maintenance crew.

Elmer Jones, wife Teresa, and children Sharon Ellen, Shirley Fay and Chas. Frank, now living on Elizabeth Ave. Elmer sub-let quarters for some time in town, and has now obtained a house unto himself. He has been at the mill since Sept. 1/48 and is now a 2nd Switchman in the Service Dept. train crew. Elmer hails originally from Bathurst, N.B.

Walter Anderson, wife Marjorie and daughter Margot Jane, have again taken up residence in town, this time on Fort Garry Rd. Walter's many friends are glad to see him so well recovered from his illness as to be able to re-establish home life here. He has been with the company since Aug. 20/46 including service on transfer to Fraser Brace in construction years and is now a Maintenance Dept. Oiler. Walter looks on Brandon, Man. as original "home".

Fred Gould, wife Clara, and son Robert James, are now on Elizabeth Ave. after having sub-let housing in town for some time. Coming from Strathroy, Ont. originally, Fred was a public school teacher for six years, and has been employed at the mill since July 24/50, his present job being as a Pulp Tester in the Technical Dept.
