

BOWLINGMen's League

The hot rolling Sudslingers led by Maurstad with a 696 and Louk's 682 were too much for Borsum's Overheads even though Bill came through with a nice 728. Losing the four points gave the Wings their chance to jump into the lead with a scant one point lead over the Overheads and Sudslingers. The high for the week goes to A. Cline of the Short Circuits who combined 222, 252 and 325 for a total of 799. High single goes to E. Olechek of the Sudslingers with a 328.

Other nice games go to W. Borsum, 231, 275; M. Paget 259, J. Maurstad 248, 245; E. Olechek 328, W. Louk 277, C. Buck 245, A. Hedyk 241, B. Ratchford 324, E. Grabowy 266, J. Heenan 236, W. ICE CHIPS

Up till this past Tuesday, the Rockets still had a mathematical chance of grabbing a play-off spot in the N.S.H.L. but after the upset they suffered that night at the hands of the Nipigon Flyers all that is left for them now is to play out their two remaining games against White River tonight and Schreiber on Saturday. The semi-final play-offs between Nipigon and Schreiber will get underway on Tuesday night in Schreiber.

The Bantams, under Joe Adamo, are really rolling and have an enviable record to date. In exhibition games they have won 2, lost 2 and tied 1 and in their league competition they are tied for first place with a record of 3 wins and 1 tie - no losses. Big guns in the goal-getting department have been Jackie Marsh, Gale Savoy and Phil Miller.
