

PEE WEE HOCKEYHawks squeeze into first place one point ahead of Canadiens

Last Saturday morning's Leafs - Hawks encounter saw the superior passing of the Black and Red organization pay off as they drubbed the Maples to the tune of 4 - 1. Leafs took the lead midway through the first canto on a stellar solo effort by Ronnie Schock. However, Leafs couldn't hold off the Hawks who pulled up even when Brian Harvey slipped the black disc behind goalie Murray Pletzer. The play see-sawed back and forth with both teams missing many good opportunities. A scramble in front of the Leaf net gave Jeanneret his opportunity and he slammed it home. Harvey scored twice before the end of the game giving him the honor of achieving the proverbial "Hat Trick".

Final score - Hawks 4 - Leafs 1.

On Monday afternoon the Hawks and Leafs met again in one of their famed "Blue Monday Specials". Coach Borsum's boys came up with a "bone-jarring" type of play that rocket the Black Hawks no end, and kept their big guns from ramming any pucks into the Leafian stronghold.

Playoffs begin March 1, Saturday afternoon, and this first game will be played as the feature of the Kiwanis Kids Karnival. From here it looks like Canadiens and Hawks will be clashing in this best of three series which should go the limit.

Leafs have a mathematical chance of tying for third place with Canadiens; if they win all their games and Canadiens lose all theirs - mathematical but? Should be a good playoff series.

TERRACE BAY HOME & SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

A somewhat different and most interesting meeting of the Home and School Association was held Monday, February 18th in the Terrace Bay School.

Mr. A. Bryans had arranged for a Panel discussion on the subject, "What does the Teacher expect of the parent", and "What does the parent expect of the Teacher".

The Panel group was made up of Mrs. G. Rowlandson and Mrs. F. Soughton representing the teachers (both ex teachers) and Mrs. T. McInnis and Mr. W. Cavanaugh representing the parents with Mr. K. Hutchinson acting as chairman. (all parents)

The theme of the discussion was broken down into several sub-topics, and the group discussed the following subjects:

1. What does the teacher or parent expect of the child as far as their attitude to each other is concerned.
2. What habits do the parents expect the teacher to teach, and what habits do the teacher expect the parents to teach.
3. What part does the homework expect to play in the school life of a child, also, the purpose of the examinations and report cards.
4. The conduct and punishment of a child.

Following the discussion among the members of the Panel group, the subject was then opened to the meeting and several expressed their views on the theme of the discussion.

At the close of the meeting the Social committee, under its convenor, Mrs. R. Wills, served refreshments.

"101 Ways to Increase the Value of Your Home" by F. B. Evans and Dorothy Sara.

"The Wanderer" by Mika Waltari. A novel which romps across the reign of Suleiman the Magnificent. A Mohammedan slave dealer describes young Michael (the Wanderer of the title) as having a singular gift for landing on his feet like a cat, no matter what the circumstances. For certainly Michael bears a charmed life.

"The Wooden Horse" by Eric Williams. This is the story of the most daring and ingenious escape of the whole war with the irresistible appeal common to all truly great stories of human adventure and endurance.
