New Adult Books

"The Luteplayer" by Norah Lofts. The Third Crusade, in all its colour and pageantry, is the brilliant backcloth to this long, exciting and, like all Norah Lofts' stories, immensely readable novel.

"Quest for the Last City" by Dana and Ginger Lamb. This tells of an adventure to the south, down the west coast of Mexico into the Forbidden Land of the Mayas in pursuit of a mystery that has long baffled explorers and scientists.

"The Serpent-Wreathed Staff" by Alice Fisdale Hobart. An arresting novel about doctors by the author of 'Oil for the Lamps of China'.

"Tara's Healing" by Janice Holt Giles. Tara Cochrane, M.D., a doctor without a practice, neurotic, riddled with the anxiety and insecurity that rules him.....this is the man who later realizes with compassion and understanding that he can give the Ridge folk something they have never had before.
