Children's Books:

"A Land Divided" by John F. Hayes. Drawing on the adventure-filled history of Canada's Maritime Provinces, John F. Hayes has woven this tale of high courage, excitement, and danger.

"Chisel-Tooth the Beaver" by Joseph Wharton Lippincott. The true and exciting story of the life of the beaver - that most valuable of fur bearers - in his wilderness haunts.

"Southpaw Fly Hawk" by Addison Rand. This is the story of Eddie's adventures at Baseball.

"Captain Jeep" by F. E. Rechnitzer. The day that the "S. S. Esmeralda" docked in Bartonsburg with old Captain Jeep aboard, the three Dowd boys unknowingly plunged into the most exciting summer of their young lives.

"Kim" by Rudyard Kipling. A story of adventure in India.

ST. MARTIN'S "JUNE" BALL

Last year we witnessed the inauguration of this annual event in which a "Queen" was picked from among all the pretty ladies of Terrace Bay and Schreiber. While last year's contest took place in May, it will, nevertheless, prove just as enjoyable this year in June. Towards this end, the Dance Committee, under Art LeBlanc, has booked the Recreation Hall for Friday evening, June 27th, with dancing scheduled from 10 to 2 a.m..

Complete details will be available next week but it may be well to plan for this important social event now. Last year the "Queen" selected by the judges was our own Miss Sue Lumbers, who proved to be a very popular winner. Wonder who it will be this year? ? ?

CREDIT UNION NEWS

We would like to bring the following points to the attention of all members of the Terrace Bay Community Credit Union.

(1) The Credit Committee will meet every Monday to consider loan applications received on that Monday or during the previous week.

(2) Members wishing to make loans up to and equal to the amount of share capital they have invested in the Credit Union, may do so without going through the formalities of the Credit Committee. They may deal directly with the Treasurer-Manager.

(3) Pass-books must be presented with loan applications. No application will be accepted without the applicant's pass-book.

These three recommendations from the Credit Committee were debated and voted on at the last regular meeting of the Credit Union Board of Directors and were accepted.

All members are requested to govern themselves accordingly.

A. Stevens - Credit Committee
W. Baillie - President.
