LIBRARY NEWS

Hours:

The Library will be closed Monday, June 30th, and Tuesday, July 1st, but will be open as usual Wednesday afternoon and Thursday night.

New Books for Adults:

"The Right Time" by John D. Sheridan. In this delightful collection of essays, facile wit combines with rich humour to restore one's sense of proportion and break, even if only temporarily, the vicious circle of trouble and anxiety that has become the pattern of life to-day.

"My Hat Blew Off" by John D. Sheridan. Here is a writer who sees the fun and glory of being alive, and who sets ordinary day-to-day happenings against a philosophic background that puts them in true perspective.

"The Restless Flame" by Louis de Wohl. A novel of St. Augustine. The dramatic story of a man's struggle toward spiritual heights.

For the Children:

"Jan and His Clogs" by Antonia Ridge. This is the story of a Dutch boy with illustrations by Barbara Freeman.

SHOWER HELD FOR BRIDE-TO-BE

On Monday evening, June 23rd, a delightful shower was held at Hotel Terrace in honour of Glenna Coughlin, a Bride-To-Be of next month. An enjoyable evening was spent playing Court Whist after which Glenna opened her many gifts and expressed her thanks to her friends. A delicious lunch was served by the hostesses Pat Dooling, Helen Harvey and Norma Crockford.

"PYRAMID" BINGO - TUESDAY, JULY 8TH

DOOR PRIZE - $20.00

Tuesday, July 8th is the date of the next "Pyramid" Bingo in the basement of St. Martin's Church. Remember folks, a .50¢ ticket entitles you to 10 games plus a chance at the door prize, so plan to be there. Mrs. T. Latour missed the door prize of $15.00 on Tuesday evening because she was absent. Remember, you must be present to win the door prize.
