AT THE MOVIES

Saturday Matinee, July 5/52 - 1:30 p.m.

"Francis Goes to the Races" starring Donald O'Connor, Piper Laurie and "Francis" the talking mule. We find O'Connor and Francis becoming attached to an expensive racing stable quartered at the famous Santa Anita Race Track and the amazing mule, by talking to the turf equines, is able to furnish his master with all the winners.

Saturday Evening, July 5/52 - 7:30 p.m.

"Smuggler's Island" with Jeff Chandler and Evelyn Keyes. The story concerns the efforts of a young American diver and sloop-owner to transport a $200,000 cargo of illegal gold from Macao to Hong Kong at the request of a beautiful young lady in trouble.

OPPORTUNITY FOR A BASEBALL FAN

Accommodation is available in an automobile leaving for Chicago on July 16th, to take in the 3 games being played there against the visiting NY Giants on July 18th 19th and 20th. The Box Seats have already been obtained and are here in T.B. A party of 4 men are all ready to go and are looking for a fifth to share expenses, which will be very reasonable indeed. It is planned to leave Chicago on July 23rd to make the trip home. Anyone interested is requested to contact Ed. Pineault at the Instrument Shop or Dial 414 any evening.
