AT THE MOVIES

Saturday Matinee, July 26/52 - 1:30 p.m.

"Bedtime for Bonzo" starring Ronald Reagan, Diana Lynn and introducing "Bonzo". They adopted a baby chimp as an experiment and wound up with a wrecked romance, a college riot, and lot of reputations on the rocks!

Saturday Evening, July 26/52 - 7:30 p.m.

"Hard, Fast & Beautiful" starring Claire Trevor and Sally Forrest. The price of fame in the big-time sports racket. Tennis in the big-time! Miss Forrest portrays a young California girl who shows immense promise on the tennis courts. Miss Trevor is cast as her scheming mother who spurs the girl on to national fame with the sole thought of absorbing her earnings. Delighted at first with her success, the heroine finally realizes what her mother is up to no good to her romance and future. Her revolt brings about the film's strong climax.

The following is printed from the Community Courier:

To Preserve Children

Take one grassy field,
One-half dozen children,
Two or three small dogs,
A pinch of brook and some pebbles,
Mix the children and the dogs
Well together,
And put them in the field,
Stirring constantly;
Pour the brook over the pebbles,
Sprinkle the field with flowers,
Spread over all a deep blue sky,
And bake in the hot sun,
When brown, remove and
Set away to cool in the bathtub.
