SECOND ANNUAL FISH DERBY

The 2nd Annual Fish Derby sponsored by the Terrace Bay Fish & Game Club will be held on Sunday, August 24th. Please note carefully the date which has been changed from August 17th. Fishing time will be from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m., with registration taking place on the shore of Lake Superior near the Pumphouse. Each participant will be given a Sportsman's button to wear, which will identify him at the rendezvous for weighing in the fish, which will be at Terrace Bay Enterprises Garage.

The first prize for the biggest fish caught will be a 16 ft. Cedar strip "GOSH-AWK" boat. Many other valuable prizes will also be won.

Also, don't forget the warming-up event to take place August 22nd when the 2nd Annual Sportsmen's Dance will be held. Dancing will be from 10 P.M. to 2 A.M. to the music of the Terrace Vagabonds at the Recreation Hall.

Door prize for the dance is a 16 ft. Cedar Strip "GOSHAWK" boat and 7.5 h.p. Evinrude motor.

Tickets for this door prize may also be purchased around town.

Adult Books:

"Renny's Daughter" by Mazo de la Roche. The twelfth book in the famous Jalna series.

"The Pillar" by David Walker. The story of six men captured at Dunkirk who were shut-up together in a German Oflag.

"There Nests the Water Hen" by Gabrielle Roy, writer of "The Tin Flute". The background for this story is Little Water Hen River in Manitoba province.

"Dizzy" by Hesketh Pearson. Disraeli is the most colorful personality in the history of politics and this story of his rise to power is stranger than anything in fiction.

"Night Train to Paris" by Manning Coles. A thriller loaded with suspense -- another Tommy Hambledon case.
