KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS FORMED

St. Edward's Council No. 3554 of Schreiber and Terrace Bay, was officially installed into the Knights of Columbus at ceremonies held in Schreiber last Sunday. Some 75 Catholic laymen formed the first K. of C. Council in this area, which also takes in Marathon, Rossport and the North Shore of Lake Superior east of Nipigon.

The local Council was named in tribute to most Rev. Bishop Edward Jennings, the Bishop-Elect of the newly formed diocese of Fort William. Officers of the new Council are: Grand Knight, P. J. Syvitski; Deputy Grand Knight, E. A. Marostica; Recording Secretary, R. Campbell; Financial Secretary, P. Guina; Treasurer, L. Bourke; Warden, R. Beaulieu; Chamcellor, F. Kelly; Inside Guard, R. Spadoni; Outside Guard, J. Kennedy; Trustees, L. Noonan (3 years), J. Levesque (2 years) and H. J. Boudreau (1 year).

A degree team, headed by Fort William's Grand Knight, Patrick L. O'Brien, conducted the exemplification of the First Degree of the Order for 27 new candidates.

Following the traditional pageantry of the afternoon, a festive banquet, catered to by the C. W. L. of Schreiber, was held by
