

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS COUNCIL FORMED

(continued from page 2)

the new Council for its members and guests at the Guild Hall.

The Toast to Her Highness, the Queen, was proposed by Grand Knight, Pat Syvitski, who presided over the Banquet, and the toast to His Holiness, the Pope was dedicated by Father J. E. Roenicke.

Other speakers and well wishers were Father J. McHugh, Chancellor F. Kelly, Grand Knight P. L. O'Brien and Deputy Grand Knight W. Buset, both of Fort William, and Deputy Grand Knight E. A. Marostica.

o-0-o

LIBRARY NEWSHours

Monday & Wednesday - 2:30 to 4:30 p.m.

Tuesday & Thursday - 7:00 to 9:00 p.m.

Children's Hours

Monday & Wednesday - 4:00 to 4:30 p.m.

Tuesday & Thursday - 7:00 to 7:30 p.m.

Children's Books

"The Voyages of Doctor Doolittle" by Hugh Lofting. Doctor Doolittle and his friend Tommy Stubbins, the cobbler's son, take a voyage to Spidermonkey Island and meet all sorts of adventures to thrill the young reader.

"Mrs. Piggle-Wiggle's Magic" by Betty MacDonald, author of "The Egg and I". To any who may have read "Mrs. Piggle-Wiggle", this sequel story will be greatly in demand.

"Double Date" by Rosamond Du Jardin. This book is recommended for the teen-agers.

"Flock of Watchbirds" by Munro Leaf. The Watchbirds are all gathered in this jolly book to watch away the faults and foibles of children, with direct text and funny drawings in red and black.

o-0-o

SOFTBALL DRAW

The winning ticket was held by Gus MacInnes of our Warehouse Staff and was numbered 314. Harold Marsh sold Gus the ticket and for this a prize of $5.00 goes to Harold.

The draw itself took place at 12 midnite during the Softball Stag held in the Rec. Hall last Friday and Murdo Campbell did the honors by drawing the ticket.

As the lucky winner, Gus became the owner of ALL 5 gifts that were on display at the Hudson's Bay Store during the past week.

The Softball Executive wish to apologize for the misunderstanding that there would be 5 distinct prizes, due to the printer's error on the tickets.

FREE COURSE FOR PARENTS (cont. from page 1) training in self-control. Some of the topics are:

Learning - what it is and how it is achieved.
Direct and Indirect Control.

Consequences - in terms of learning instead of punishments or rewards.

Security

Pre-School Learning (second course)

This course deals with the application of the basic principles of discipline to a training programme for a child from birth to five years. Some of the chapters are headed:

Learning to Enjoy Food.

Learning Good Toilet Habits.

First Stages in Social Development.

Emotional Development.

The School Age Child (third course)

A picture of development from five to twelve years stressing:

Training in Responsibility - use of money, habits of work, etc.

Relationship of the Home and the School
Character Education.

Adolescence (fourth course)

Typical behaviour of adolescents and the role of the parents in guiding them.

It is studied under such headings as:

The Meaning of Adolescence.

The Regulation of the Adolescent.

Preparation for Family Life.

Emotional Development.

Family Relationships (fifth course)

This last course deals with:

The Family in History.

Marital Relationships.

Parent-Child Relationships.

Democracy in the Family.

o-0-o

AT THE MOVIESSaturday Matinee - August 16/52 - 1:30 p.m.

"Honeychile" starring Judy Canova with ten top comedians.

Saturday Evening - August 16/52 - 7:30 p.m.

"Happy Go Lovely" (Originally billed for showing on Saturday, August 2nd, but not received from supplier.) Starring David Niven, Vera Ellen and Cesar Romero in a Technicolor happy fun-and-music show.

It all starts when an American theatrical troupe falls upon dreary days preparatory to opening an engagement during the Edinburgh Festival of Music. Hoping to draw crowds from that august occasion, one "Frolics to You" company is beset by creditors during rehearsals.

o-0-o

GIVE THE FIRE TRUCK THE RIGHT OF WAY

AT ALL TIMES.