MART KENNEY HERE IN OCTOBER

The Recreation Committee and the Kiwanis Club are combining their forces to bring Mart Kenney and his famed Western Gentlemen to Terrace Bay early in October. At the time of going to press, the exact date is not known, but it will be during the second week of October. Price of admission to this big time affair will be $2.00 per person and it is hoped that many residents of Terrace Bay and vicinity will avail themselves of this opportunity to enjoy themselves to the utmost.

AT THE MOVIES

Saturday Matinee - August 30th, 1952-1:30 PM

"Beyond The Purple Hills" starring Gene Autry and Champion the world's wonder horse. Gene's got his back to the wall breaking through a lynch mob to ride the real killers down.

Saturday evening - August 30/52 - 7:30 PM

"The Strange Door" starring Charles Laughton, Boris Karloff and Sally Forrest.

An influential citizen of France in the 1700's is Alan, the Sire de Maletroit (Charles Laughton), a cruel tyrant given to fits of insanity resulting from his childhood sweetheart's marriage to his own brother twenty years before. The woman has been dead since the second year of her marriage. But the brother, who has been presumed dead, too, has been kept a prisoner by Alan throughout the ensuing years in a dungeon in the Maletroit chateau.

SWIMMING POOL CLOSES SUNDAY

After a successful swimming season, the last time that the Lifeguard-Instructor will be on duty, will be from 1:00 till 5:00 PM on Sunday, August 31st. After that time anyone using the Swimming Pool does so at their own risk.

Just recently, when the Red Cross Swimming Tests were conducted, the following children who received instruction this summer all passed with flying colours: In the Senior Class were - Jim Sweet, Jackie Marsh, Roger LeBlanc, Joseph Marcella and Barry Marquis. Intermediates were - Lucille Jolin, Margaret Banks, Lynne Porter, Joyce Sitch, Ray Husband and George Dennis. In the Junior Class - Carolyn Thompson, Brenda MacDonald, Rosalind Savoy, Dorothy MacDonald, Sandra McInnes and Gilles LeBlanc were the successful candidates. Congratulations Kids!! The presentation of Crests Pins and Cards will take place in the very near future.

Last Saturday's Annual Swimming Meet went off without a hitch and so now we draw a close to another swimming season.
