off with a toothbrush; Paul Marcella had to take baby steps from Stop-sign on the highway to Hotel Terrace marking every 100th step; Phil Miller was requested to sing like Al Jolson outside of the Hudson Bay; Bob Marcotte was requested to get all license numbers of cars parked at the north camp and mill; Dan Kenny had to carry an egg through the shopping centre on a coffee spoon; Edwin Nichols had to measure with a 6" ruler from the corner of the Bay around Bucovetsky's and back stating the number of feet. Jackie Marsh and Ronny McKay did not have to perform as it was decreed by the Court that they were to go free because they were good sports.

The festivities ended up with a dance in the evening which was enjoyed by all.

Terry McInnes was Master of Ceremonies and welcomed the Schreiber students. He also presented Ronny McKay with a prize for being the best sport of Initiation.
