Last Monday the men finally got down to business and started to knock the maples about. By some of the scores rolled, it looks like a good season ahead. "Spaghetti" Louk came through with a 286 to take high single for the night, then combined this with 255 and 215 for a high triple of 756. "One Meat-Ball" Buck was absent and therefore unable to assist his partner Louk against Mazza's "Powerfuls". Gordon Arnold of the Barber-Greenes (if you want an explanation on how came the name, ask Gord) took the honour for the most consistent bowler of the night with scores of 67, 67, and a surprising 80. Manager Richards and ardent fan Morandin are seriously considering "what should we do with Arnold". Other good scores were Joe Heenan 236, 205 (636). A point we should mention at this time is that this is the first season that Joe has not shattered his previous records on opening night as he has done since the alleys have been installed. Could it be that the worry of no sponsor yet is getting him down? To go on, C.E. Paget 226 (605) P.E. Mazza 220 217; B. Ratchford 201; B. Browning 200; G. Sandrella 217; P. Reynolds 200; A. Boutilier 220; H. Midkiff 201; J. Diduch 204, 207 (605) L. Swirhun 203; D. Day 237.

Peter Mazza's team took the high single with 1000 and combined this with 987 and 879 for the Hi-3 of 2866.
