TERRACE BAY ALL-STARS TO BATTLE NESCOS AT LAKEHEAD SATURDAY

Next Saturday the Terrace Bay 10-Pin all stars will continue their series of grudge battles with the Nescos of the Lakehead. The Nescos are always one of the toughest teams in the Lakehead and "The Team to Beat". They won the first part of the Senior 10-Pin League this year.

The All-Stars and the Nescos have been battling the last 3 years on a home and home basis and while the local boys have not been able to take the Nescos in the Lakehead they have always held their own here and last year nosed the Nescos out for the T.B. Invitational Trophy, and this year they are hoping to "beard the lion in it's den."

The Nescos will field Art Christie, Murray Fulkerson, Swandi ~~Waarinen~~, Vic Blazini and Pete Fuchek. The T.B. All-Stars will feature the top 5 averages in the league Bill Borsum, Willie Adamo, Howard Solly, Al Lindskoog and Leon Checkryn. A 4 game scratch total pin match will be held starting at 1:00 PM Saturday on Matt's Alleys in Westfort and any rooters for the home squad will be cordially welcomed.

LEON CHECKRYN TO HEAD MIXED 10-PIN LEAGUE

"Old Pro" Checkryn took all the honors in the book last Sunday as the mixed league formally organized. First he hit high total of 572 and high game of 202 and afterward he was elected to head the league for this year.

Olyve Harrison starred for the girls with a 430 series on games of 165 and 149. Al Lindskoog had a 533 series.

In spite of Leon's efforts however, the Royalettes dropped all four games to the Firettes as the latter team climbed to a tie for first. The Superiors and Badgers split 2 points apiece.

Standings

Badgers 10 Superiors 9
 Firettes 10 Royalettes 3

LADIES 5-PIN LEAGUE

There were six games over the 200 mark on the Ladies League this week. They belong to the following: Anne Checkryn - 241; Doris Lindskoog - 227; Irene Goodfellow - 226; Ethel Maitland - 223; Grace Banks - 215; Joey Semeniuk - 210.

Joey Semeniuk had high series of 571, Anne Checkryn and Irene Goodfellow each had 549, Doris Lindskoog had 526 and Grace Banks had 501.

The Terrors took 4 points, the Whirlers took 3 points and the Sure Shots took 1 point which means that the Terrors are in first place with 30 points, the Whirlers are second with 23, the Sure Shots third with 20 and the Goodgals are 4th with 15 points.

The first series will be concluded on December 9th and the Ladies will resume the afternoon bowling schedule on January 6th which will start the second series.
