NEW BOOKS FOR ADULTS

"Dance to the Piper" by Agnes De Mille. Here is caught the spirit and the discipline of a dance studio and what it means in the way of hard work and heartbreak to be just an ordinary corps de ballet trouper in a ballet company.

"Ellery Queen's Calendar of Crime". Detective Story at its best.

"The Penningtons" by Basil Partridge. This is the story of a large and wonderful family their problems and the ways in which they are resolved.

"The Marcaboth Women" by Vina Delmar. Intimate, humorous, swiftly paced, this is perhaps Mrs. Delmar's most successful novel.

"Runyon's Guys and Dolls". An Omnibus including "Guys and Dolls", "Blue Plate Special", and "Money from Home" by Damon Runyon.

NOTICE:

Members are requested to bring back overdue books promptly.

Donations of books suitable for the public will be gratefully accepted.

CURLING NEWS

At the last Executive Meeting it was decided to ask all members of the Curling Club to pay their Dues by January 25/53. As you all know, fellows, we need these monies in the coffers in order to operate and will look forward to receiving your 12 bucks before the deadline.

Dues may be paid to Jock MacCall; your genial Treasurer, at the Bank or in his absence to Des Evans-Smith. We definitely prefer you to pay direct to Jock or Des at the Bank but if you find that is not convenient, either Dave McDonald or Al Pattison will be happy to take your money.

As a matter of interest, we are pleased to report that the boys who represented the Terrace Bay Curling Club at the opening of the Port Arthur Curling Club's new Artificial Ice Plant last week-end, acquitted themselves nobly. Although they won only one of the three games they played, they lost only by the narrowest of margins in the other two encounters. However, at the Banquet Table and afterwards, they had no peers and all in all it was considered a successful week-end. Members of the Rinks were as follows:- (1) Rune Ostling, Nels Allen, Al Pattison and Joe Heenan (2) Jack Wellings, Ted McInnis, Joe Campbell and Fred Soughton.
