

CHILDREN'S CHRISTMAS PARTIES

wish to pick up presents for their children who are between the ages of 0 and 2, it is pointed out that these gifts will be available at the Recreation Hall on both Friday and Saturday, ready to be picked up.

In order to know approximately how many children might be attending, the whole Townsite is being canvassed, but in order to care for the children of employees living in Schreiber, those employees are requested to put the names, ages and sex of their children on a slip of paper and leave it in the T. B. Newsbox at the Time Clocks or phone them in to Local 16, before Noon on Monday, Dec. 15th.

These parties will be held in the Recreation Hall in the South Camp and in order to facilitate transporting the children from the Townsite, the Company bus will be in operation on both days. Schedule of same will appear in next week's "News".

HOME TEAM COMES CLOSE BUT DOESN'T QUITE MAKE IT AGAINST "NESCOS"

The "Old Master" Leon flashed a semblance of the form of his younger days as he smashed out a beautiful 608 series and 222 game to take high scoring honours in the Terrace All-Stars vs Nescos 10-pin grudge match last Saturday on the Westfort alleys. But it wasn't quite enough in spite of Borsum's 556 in support of the cause as the Nescos Big Guns Young 588, Blazina 570, and Waarinen 534 opened up. Even so, the final score had the local boys behind by only 48 pins. It was necessary to shorten the match to 3 games as part of the Terrace team had to return early. The totals are as follows:

Nescos		Terrace All-Stars
Art Christie	489	Bill Borsum	556
John Caruso	442	Howard Solly	465
Harry Young	588	Al Lindskoog	471
Swandi Waarinen	534	Willie Adamo	475
Vic Blazina	570	Leon Checkryn	608
	2623		2575

New Books for Teenagers:

"The World's Greatest Christmas Stories" by Eric Fosselt.

"On Jungle Trails" by Frank Buck. This is one of the best books on the mystery of the tropical forest and the habits of the wide variety of wild animals that Mr. Buck has actually caught alive and brought back to captivity.

"National Velvet" by Enid Bagnold. The quality of the treatment, the freshness of the writing, the knowledge of a young girl's mind and the love of a horse give "National Velvet" that touch of enchantment.

"The Swiss Family Robinson" by Johann Wyss. This favourite chronicle written by a Swiss Army Chaplain has entertained generations of boys as the perfect "desert island story".

"The Seventeen Reader". Stories and articles from Seventeen Magazine selected and edited by Bryna Ivens.

CHRISTMAS TURKEY BINGO

Last Tuesday evening an enthusiastic number of patrons gathered in the basement of St. Martin's Church for the first of two Christmas Turkey Bingo nights -- and a large number won their Xmas Turkeys in short order. If you weren't able to be on hand at that time, you have a last chance to win yours on Monday evening, same place, at 8:00 p.m. Bingos are 10¢ a game and who knows, you may win yours on the first few tries. Plan now to attend and perhaps make your Christmas a little more economical.
