Lenten Regulations

As promulgated by His Excellency, Bishop Jennings.

Fast - One full meal a day, with meat, except on days of abstinence, along with two smaller meals sufficient to maintain strength. Eating between meals is not permitted, although milk, coffee, fruit juice and the like do not break the fast.

The following are exempt from fast: shift workers, mothers with small children, pregnant women, teachers and nurses. Others must obtain exemption from their parish priest or confessor.

Abstinence - Everyone from the age of seven must abstain from meat on days of abstinence. Complete abstinence must be observed on all Fridays, and on Holy Saturday until noon. Partial abstinence - i.e., meat once a day - must be observed by all on Wednesdays during Lent.

Easter Duty

This precept must be observed by all. The time allowed for its fulfilment is from Ash Wed. (Feb. 18) to Trinity Sun. (May 31).
