FATHER ROENICKE

Terrace Bay said "Au Revoir" to Rev. J. E. Roenicke, Parish Priest of St. Martin's Roman Catholic Church, on the occasion of his transfer to new duties at Red Rock, Ont.

Father arrived in Terrace Bay in April, 1949, and at that time Mass was held in a re-modelled bunkhouse in the South Camp. Under his patient, but persistent guidance, St. Martin's Church, as we see it today, took form and stands as a fine example of what community effort, properly directed, can accomplish.

In leaving, Father Roenicke leaves behind him a host of parishioners and friends who wish him every success in his new parish. In addition to his parish work at Red Rock, Father will be responsible for mission work at Hurkett, Dorion, Pearl and Pass Lake.

Prior to his departure he was honoured at a gathering of some sixty Knights of Columbus at which time he was presented with a purse.

In his farewell remarks Father Roenicke expressed the hope that many of Terrace Bay's citizens would find it convenient to visit him on their way to the Lakehead.
