

ALONG THE BASE PATHSLeague Standings at July 22nd

	GP	W	L	PTS
Shift #1	10	9	1	18
Salary	12	7	5	14
Shift #2	10	5	5	10
Townsite	10	5	5	10
Maintenance	9	4	5	8
Shift #3	10	3	7	6
Structural	9	2	7	4

Glancing at the standings one can see what a close, bang up finish the league is about to experience. No team has yet been mathematically eliminated but one additional win by any two of the present 3rd and 4th teams can end the hopes of Shift #3 and the Structural squad.

There are two very important games shaping up for the end of this week. Thursday night Shift #2 will tangle with Shift #3 in a "do-or-die" contest as far as the latter team is concerned. As a warm up for the big Softball Stag of Friday evening, Townsite and Maintenance will get the entertainment off to an early start at 6:15.

Last Thursday evening Maintenance took Shift #2 into camp by the score of 9-3. Stan Zwaresh had things under control all the way allowing but 3 hits including a three-bagger by Bill Herron and striking out 7 batters.

In a game abbreviated by rain on Friday evening Shift #1 trounced Salary 11-1. Frank Whitfield held the Salarites to 4 hits while his teammates combed the offerings of Gord Rowlandson for 12 hits including a long home run by Galvin and doubles by Schritt, Cavanaugh, Diduch and Whitfield. John (Get on base somehow) Holancin was ejected from the game for having made the mistake of running from first base to second while coaching on first base.

Sunday afternoon Salary clinched a play off berth by edging Structural 4-2. Structural managed to obtain 9 hits during the game but Peter Rapke was able to keep these hits well scattered. Nick Chopty aided his own cause with a double and home run while Bill Borsum clouted a two bagger for the Salary team.

We are sorry that we have no statistics for the other two games on Sunday. However the Terrace Bay All Stars edged the Queen's Park Softball Club from Port Arthur in two closely contested games to make it a fine day for local softball fans.

SUNDAY NIGHT FILM PROGRAM

Another in the series of Sunday night Tourist Programs will be held in the Continuation School Auditorium this coming Sunday, July 26th starting at 8:30 p.m. Those weekly programs are held under the auspices of the local Kiwanis Club.

Featured on this week's program will be: "Eye Witness No. 16", a short Canadian newsreel that covers open-air artists in Ottawa; oil-drilling in Alberta and ladder-fishing in Nova Scotia.

"Tropical Lament" shows Andree Lescot a new Canadian from Haiti singing three native folk songs.

"Montreal by Night" is the story of Canada's metropolis. The Indian village of three hundred years ago has developed into what is now North America's second largest port, and, next to Paris, the world's largest French-speaking city.
