LIBRARY NEWS

A true story of faith and courage of a woman who spent a winter alone in an Alaskan wilderness. The day she and her husband were preparing to leave their isolated mine prospect, Mrs. Martin suffers an accident in which her right arm is broken, left leg is useless and her head deeply gashed. Her husband had left earlier in the outboard to catch the mailboat and does not return. Alone, badly injured in pain, and awaiting the birth of her child Mrs. Martin writes her story and memories to keep from losing her sanity. You will not want to put this book down until the last work is read.

Library hours - 2:30 - 4:30 Monday and Wednesday.

7:00 - 9:00 Tuesday and Thursday.
