KIWANIS ITEMS

A "Take a Kid to Worship" program will be observed in Terrace Bay this weekend November 15th, it was announced today by the Chairman of the Committee on Support of Churches in Their Spiritual Aims.

"The purpose of the observance is to urge all adults to take children, especially less privileged children, to places of worship of their choice". The program is inter-denominational. Sponsored directly by Kiwanis International and the National Kids' Day Foundation, the "Take a Kid to Worship" program is staged in conjunction with religious leaders of all faiths, who have designated November as national "Religion in Canadian Life" month.

Religious leaders in Terrace Bay are planning special programs designed to interest children on November 15th.
