

NORTH SHORE HOCKEY

by Alex Chisolm

Thursday January 7th saw one of the finest exhibitions of hockey played in the North Shore League at Marathon where the Mercurys took the Terrace Bay Superiors into camp by a 6-4 score. Both teams played real hockey and the game could have gone one way or the other. Ray Stachiw and Tim Bond played their last game for Terrace for 1953-54 season and are certainly going to be missed as they both have turned in sparkling performances in all three games they played and have been main cogs in the teams showing this year.

Cerisino, R. Morgan, LeBlanc, Seppala and Henderson were the shining lights for Marathon with Weaver, Cavanaugh, Bond, Stachiw and Synishin turning in the best performances for the losers. The summary of game is as follows:

1st. Period - Marathon - P. Morgan
(J. McCullough Marathon
Choryna (Henderson)
Terrace Bay - Synishin (Molinski)
Marathon LeBlanc (Seppala)
2nd Period - Terrace Bay, J. Cavanaugh (Bond)
Marathon P. Morgan (Amedeo)
3rd. Period - Marathon LeBlanc
Terrace - J. Cavanaugh (Bond)
Terrace - T. Bond (J. Cavanaugh)
Marathon - Henderson (Filippino)

There were 14 penalties handed out, 9 to Marathon and 5 to Terrace Bay.

Tuesday evening Terrace Bay and Schreiber renewed their hockey war in the Arena. The first period was even with the score 1-1 on a goal by Terry Cavanaugh. The second period was much better with Terrace Bay really going to work and goals by Earl Knight and Francis Hanna making the score 3-1 without a reply from Schreiber. The 3rd period started out with a quick Schreiber goal which was well deserved. Then Earl Knight shot from the Schreiber blue line and scored but this goal was disallowed. Schreiber gathered heart after this lucky break and scored once more making it 3-3. With 2 minutes to go the roof fell in and Schreiber pushed in another goal making it 4-3 and that was the hockey game.

Goal: Bob Weaver

Defence: Mac Munroe - Reg Payette

Centre - Johnny Cavanaugh

Left Wing- Earl Knight

Right Wing - Doug Luke
