SAX LUNDBERG HITS NEW HIGH SERIES TO KEEP STEAD AND LINDSTROM IN LEAD

Last night Sax Lundberg hit a new high series for the year scratch 577 and with handicap 649. He also holds the high game with and without handicap record for the year. As a result Stead and Lindstrom pulverized the cellar dwelling Engineers for 4 points and widened their 1st place lead with the high team series of the night with and without handicap 2300 and 2753.

The Bears etched out 2 points in their battle with Shift #1 to retain their 2nd place spot. As shift #1 hit high handicap game for the night 960 but fell down in the last two games. It looks like the Warehouse are to be reckoned with this series. They pulled up into 3rd place on the strength of their 3 point win over the formerly hot starduster agregation.

Ard in the remaining game of the night the Overheads showed a little life as they took 3 points from the Deceiver's and lost the other game by one point. The overheads had high scratch game for the evening -773.
