S. H. MEMORIAL TROPHY GAME TONIGHT!!!

Tonight's the night, Thursday Feb. 11th in the Schreiber Arena at 8:30 p.m. for the Canadian play-off for the S. H. Memorial Trophy, between those two power houses, the "Lunchpails" and the "Palefaces".

"Old Rugged" Gross, coach of the "Lunchpails" tells us his team will really be on the offensive tonight to take the trophy for the first time in the history of the league. The "Lunchpails" have been in strict training for the past week, all members getting up early in the morning and stoking the furnace vigorously (the wives have had a rest here), and with no more than one stop on the way home from work. The evenings have been taken up with strategy talk which has not continued beyond 11:30 p.m. at Mr. MacDonald's establishment.

The "Palefaces" too are in top shape. In fact they have been shapping pencils left and right.

Both teams "talk" an equally good game, so come on fans and see this game of the year. Don't forget to get your program so you can tell the players from the sticks
