BROTHERHOOD WEEK OBSERVED

The current week (February 21 to 27th) is observed as Brotherhood Week and is sponsored nationally by the Canadian Council of Christians and Jews. Due observance is being made in Terrace Bay and in Schreiber under the sponsorship of the Knights of Columbus.

Last night a Brotherhood Dinner was held at the Hotel Terrace to which some sixty men of the two communities, as well as Marathon and Rossport, gathered in a true spirit of Brotherhood. They represented all walks of life, many creeds and nationalities - each with a single purpose of mind - to promote and maintain World Peace through religious tolerance, to uphold the dignity of man and respect him as our Brother.

Guest speaker for the occasion was His Worship Mayor Fred O. Robinson of Port Arthur who dwelt on the importance of Brotherhood, not only on a national scale, but in our everyday relation with our neighbours - on the job - on the highways - and finally with our families in the home. He supported his contentions and beliefs by drawing on his wealth of personal experience in his dual role of Mayor of Port Arthur, and as a Lathe Operator in the C.N.R. Shops at the Lakehead.

Other speakers were Rev. A. Lavender of the Community Church of Terrace Bay and Father J. C. McHugh of Holy Angels Parish at Schreiber. Reverend Lavender pointed out the basis and fundamental beliefs that Man clings to and that are common to every creed, and he urged the assembled gathering to apply these common beliefs in their everyday lives. Father McHugh applied a philosophical touch to the theme of his speech and graphically
