

COMMUNITY CHURCH

Sunday, March 7th, 1954.

- 9:30 a.m. - Senior Sunday School
- 11:00 a.m. - Junior Sunday School
- 11:00 a.m. - Morning Worship
"Peter the Pupil"
- 7:30 p.m. - Evening Service

This service will be taken by pupils of the Sunday School. A choir of Sunday School scholars will render special music. Stories will be read by Mrs. Middaugh and Miss Mavis Mac-Fayden.

It is very fitting that a service of this nature should form a part of our observance of Education Week. We invite you to worship with your children on Sunday evening.

Following the service on Sunday evening March 14th the second Fireside Hour of the season will be held. Keep this date in mind and plan to attend.

LIBRARY NEWS

Man on The Tight Rope - Neil Paterson

A planned escape by a Czech circus owner and his circus from behind the Iron Curtain. This is a fairly short novel and provides a diverting hour or two of reading.

Look Who's Abroad Now - Earl Wilson

The Wilsons decided to take a month off and tour the world - while it was still there. Here is a travel book not only full of interesting accounts and packed with humor but it also includes some solid and useful information about the more realistic aspects of being a tourist. You will surely enjoy this book.
