PEEWEE HOCKEY NEWS

Despite the rumblings and grumblings of the weatherman, the Peewees ended their regular hockey schedule last week-end. The Maple Leafs, preseason favourites, came out on top by a comfortable margin. The other two teams, however, have shown the benefit of good coaching, and are a much improved group. Following are the team standings at the end of the regular season;

Team	P	W	L	T	F	A	PTS
Maple Leafs	10	8	1	1	30	13	17
Black Hawks	10	3	5	2	16	21	8
Canadiens	10	1	6	3	15	27	5

During the week-end, the Canadiens and Black Hawks squared off in a sudden-death play-off. At the end of regulation time, there was still no score. As the first overtime period got underway, it looked as though the tie would never be broken. Both teams checked as if their very lives depended on it. However, a few minutes later:
