HOUSE LEAGUE HOCKEY

The struggle for a playoff berth between Shifts #1 and #3 was settled Wednesday morning in the Schreiber Arena. Shift 3 won out by the score of 9-2.
The power line of Papousek, Bottomley and Belliveau scored six of #3 shifts goals and MacDonald and Cadieux counted the other three.
Beaulieu scored for #1 Shifts early in the first period. Kenny May, who played heads up hockey and threatened continually, finally broke through late in the third period to score #1 Shifts second and final goal.
Boone and May and imports Fummerton and Weaver were outstanding for #1 Shift.
