This weekend visiting rinks will be in Terrace Bay from Schreiber and Longlac. A good turn-out of all curling members is urged to show them what good hospitality is. Refreshments will be served. Children will not be allowed. Only adults over age 21.

There will be some good curling over the weekend. So come out and have fun.

KIWANIS CLUB HOLD SUCCESSFUL LADIES NIGHT

On Tuesday March 9th, the Kiwanis Club of Terrace Bay, invited their ladies for dinner and an evening's entertainment at the Hotel Terrace.

The entertainment portion of the program was under the capable chairmanship of Al Lindskoog. Al did a terrific job in lining up a program.

The program was a "take off" of a television program, representing what viewers will see when television comes to Terrace Bay. Al Lindskoog as M.C. of the show very capably impersonated Arthur Godfrey with the excellent support from Doug Harris. Their rendition of the program of Homer and Jethroe almost brought the house down.

That new instrumental trio the Rhythmaires supplied some excellent music, which contributed greatly to the success of the program.

A television show would not be complete without a Quiz program. Ken Wepler and Tom Walter as the Quiz masters conducted a Quiz program that was a riot. Unlike most quiz programs it is thought that the Quiz Masters received more money than they gave away. However the questions were difficult????

Another excellent feature was a quartet from the Male Chorus who were called back for several encores.

A supreme effort of the Kiwanis Club featured a quartet of members singing under the direction of Ernie Rowson. It is doubtful whether they would have received encores, however, the members of the Club had been well instructed.

From many comments overheard this was one of the best shows to be staged in Terrace Bay. The talent of course was all local and all the performers were excellent.

M.O. Nelson on behalf of the Kiwanis Club heartily thanked Al Lindskoog and everyone who so capably performed or helped in any way to make the show the success it was. Mrs. Bill Borsum on behalf of the ladies thanked the Kiwanis Club for a wonderful evening of entertainment.

NOTICE

A new musical group made its first public appearance this week at the Annual Kiwanis Club Ladies Night. It's an instrumental trio tagged "The Rhythmaires". Organized a number of weeks ago to fill a real need in the district, the trio is now available for booking at events involving smaller groups of people who could not normally absorb the cost of a full dance orchestra. (As a matter of fact, members of the new trio are already in one or the other of Terrace Bay's two dance orchestras). In "The Rhythmaires" are Ellen Hodgkiss (piano) Verl Thompson (drums) and Fred Soughton (piano accordion). Information on bookings may be secured from any member of the trio.
