March 27th Slated for Annual Hourly-Salary

Third annual Hourly-Salary match to be held March 27th.

The Terrace Bay Ten Pin Bowling Association have schedule the hourly-salary match for Saturday March 27th at 6:00 p.m. as in the past two years the ten highest Salary will match strikes and spares against the ten hourly bowlers.

This years match is of a great importance to either team as this is a three year saw off. The first year saw the hourly shellack the salary boys by two hundred pins. Last year the salary eeked out a win by a scant few pins. This year well - - it just looks like the hourly will be a shoo-in. It was overheard that Capt. Bill Borsum of the Salary asked for a five man match so the Salary would have at least a bit of a chance. But this was quickly over ruled as the rules have been set up three years ago and all rules must be followed up or no match. Reason for Capt. Bill wanting
