TERRACE BAY MIDGET "ROCKETS" OUTCLASS SCHREIBER 13 - 1

Tuesday night at 7:00 p.m. saw Terrace Bay Midgets win their first game of a best of five final with Schreiber to the tune of 13-1. Our midgets clinched the two-league title by not losing a game to Schreiber all season.

Terrace Bay opened the scoring early in the first period when Will Vezina slapped a rolling puck into the net. Schreiber roared back a few minutes later to tie the score 1-1. I. O'Driscoll scored this on a breakaway picking a beautiful low corner.

From then on the game was all Terrace Bay's. Danny Kenny, who scored one of the two hat trick performances, stickhandled the Schreiber goalie literally "out of his pads" and then proceeded to poke in, what eventually proved to be the winning goal. No. one person could be singled out as outstanding as both lines worked well. Gale Savoy scored the other hat trick and along with one assist made a grand night of it. Jack Marsh set up plays galore and ended up with a total of two goals and three assists.

Goals and assists were by: W. Vezina - 2 goals and 2 assists; D. Kenney 4 goals and 2 assists; J. Marsh 2 goals and 3 assists; G. Savoy 3 goals and 1 assist; R. MacKay 1 goal and 2 assists; B. Marquis 1 goal and 1 assist; R. Leblanc - 1 assist; T. McInnes 1 assist (everybody gets into the act - even the goalie!)

Final score 13-1.
