prepared for reading, writing and arithmetic prior to Grade I. Miss Honer explained it was an incidental method of teaching in Kindergarten -- nor formal method being used. Richard Downey had taken some wonderful pictures during regular kindergarten classes and these were shown by him during the course of the programme. Following adjournment of the meeting a social hour was held and luncheon served.

ROSSPORT FISH DERBY

Pressly Phillips, Director of Publicity for the Sunshine City of St. Petersburg, Florida has written more good news about the first prize of an all expense trip to Florida for the winner and a companion.

The President of the St. Petersburg Rod and Gun Club, Ralph Cooksey, has recently been presented an award to the Fishing Roll of Honor of America. Mr. Cooksey is a top-flight sportsman and he is the man who is planning the 10 day visit for the winner. You can bet your bottom dollar that you will be shown the best fishin' spots around St. Petersburg, and as we said before have a "corking good time". Mr. Cooksey has arranged for the winner to appear as guest on Radio and Television Programs and also fishing licenses will be arranged by the Club.

There will be no worry about expenses while in Florida. Everything you would like to do will be taken care of for you. All you have to do is get out on Lake Superior and catch one about this long and don't let it get away. A Fisherman's Story isn't going to win this 10 days in Florida - it must be the real McCoy.

Have you got your boat and crew lined up yet? Well come on fellas don't go leaving big things like that to the last minute.....Remember what happened last year???? Don't be one of the boys that didn't have a boat. Will we SEE YOU AT THE ROSSPORT FISH DERBY, or will you be left on shore.

Today we received word from Cy Binder Publisher of the News-Chronicle that Loyal Phillips Publisher of the St. Petersburg Independent newspaper has made arrangements for the winner to receive tickets to baseball games, trips to the Sunken Garden and that the Independent will meet the winner and take pictures for their paper.
