SOFTBALL NEWS

Last Friday Alf Adrian beat Shift #1 by striking out sixteen men, the season's high. The final score was 7-5 for Shift #3, but regardless of the score Alf really pitched a great game, giving up only 5 hits and striking out the side three times. Shift #3 also made Alf's chore a lot harder by committing seven errors.

In the 3rd inning, Alf hit a two run homer, these two runs eventually proved to be the margin of victory for #3. It's easy to see that Alf really had himself a busy evening.

the game out in the 7th inning when they got 2 runs on 2 hits, but their rally quickly sputtered.

Shritt hit a homer for #1 and Zigman got 2 hits in four trips. For #3, Adrian hit a homer and Simmer and Demas got 2 for 4.

Olyve Harrison got a nice birthday present when she won the $12.35 draw prize.

Sunday Shift #2 won their 9th game in ten starts by easily defeating Shift #3 by the score of 12-3.

Errors were directly responsible for #2's first 5 runs. Given this big lead Ed Aho pitched a nice game, allowing only 5 hits, and turning on the steam when he needed it. Eddie outpitched Alf Adrian, who definitely was not as sharp as Friday night.

Shift #3 had many opportunities to score, but could only get three runs on 3 hits in the 3rd inning.

Jim Moro tripled and Tim Bond hit 2 for 2 for #2 while Len Crockford got 2 singled in 4 at bat for #3.

At this stage of the race it's hard to see how #2 can fail to cop the top spot in the league standing at the season's end. They're playing heads-up ball and take advantage of any break.

Jim "Beaker" Rowley statistically analyzed his ticket numbers, shouted "Yahoo", and proudly walked up and pocketed the $3.80 draw prize.

Monday night Shift #1 waited until the 6th and 7th and then exploded for 4 and 5 runs to swamp Salary by the score of 13-8. The game was very close for 5 innings with the score being tied at this point 4-4, but those last 2 innings quickly sealed Salary's fate.

Shift #1 combined 5 Salary errors with 3 walks and 17 (count'em) hits to produce their 13 runs. Salary mixed up 3 walks, 4 #1 errors, and 9 hits to get their 8 runs.

Gordon Black was the big man for #1, hitting a homer with 1 man on and getting 3 for 4. Murdo Campbell got 3 for 3 for Salary, while Ozzie Dalzell hit a long homer with 2 men on base.

Salary has lost 6 straight now. One more loss and they'll be tied with T-M for the most consecutive losses - 7.
