

TERRACE BAY — NEWS —

Volume 4, No. 31

LARGEST CIRCULATION IN TERRACE BAY

August 5, 1954

ALL STAR BENEFIT GAME FOR MINOR LEAGUE

Resulting from a huddle of the six team managers, the Softball Association is now ready to present their first (which is hoped to be an annual event) All-Stars Softball Game in aid of the Minor Baseball League. The youngsters making up the League are deserving of encouragement and financial aid, and the means are now available to the public to support them in the latter and at the same time enjoy the "must" game of the season. Umpires are giving their time and service, while the Softball Association is supplying the equipment.

The managers of the two leading teams are selected to head up the all star teams. The six team managers supplied the names of their top four players. From the twenty-four names in the hat, the result of the draw was Townsite - Maintenance Terry Cavanaugh, Jim Garriock; Shift #1's Pete Diduch, John Schritt, Steve Synishin; Shift #2's Ed Aho, Dermott Cook; Shift #3's Jim Mac Donald, Charles Simmer and Shift #4 - Structural's Henry Krahn, Bob Burella and Nick Chopty summoned under Manager Bill "Robust" Sadowich comprised one team. On the second team will be found Salary's Bill Borsum, Murdo Campbell, Ed Brady, Joe Heenan, Townsite-Maintenance' Bill Marsh, Ray Belliveau; Shift #1's John Zigman; Shift #2's Marvin Osmar, Jim Moro; Shift #3's Alf Adrian, Paul Malashewski; Shift #4 - Structural's Ray Stachiw. The Manager - Dan "Silver-Haired" Gillis.

Overheard "Odds are that Sadowick will now know what Gillis feels like whenever Shift #3 has met Shift #2 in the past.

Once before during this season, good seats in the bleachers were at a premium, and we remind you to get there early and above all dig deep - for the sake of our youngsters. Let's make this "Benefit Day for the Minor Baseball League" and support them also in their sale of "peanuts, Pop"

The "League's Best" are out to present the "Season's Best" as soon as Dan and Bill finalize their arrangements, watch the News for this important date.

o-o-o

SOFTBALL BRIEFS

Plans are continuing favourably for the big event of the season - the Annual Softball Wind-up which will take place Friday, September 3rd in the Auditorium of the Continuation School. Early information is being released on this Cabaret so that you may start making your plans regarding baby sitter, etc. A grand time is assured players, escorts and invited guests.

- - - - -

The postponed game between Shift #3 and Shift #4 - Structural will take place Saturday, August 7th at 6:30 in the evening. This was made possible through the courtesy of the Minor Baseball League.

More Softball on page 6.