LIBRARY NEWS

WILD ADVENTURE - by Howard Hill

The wordly adventurer and famous archer relates his experiences in deep jungles, the Everglades, the mountains and under the Tonto Rim, with his only weapon, the bow and arrow. Many of his adventures were filmed for movies and supply an entertaining hour or so for those who like the outdoor life.

PROUD WATERS - by Ewart Brookes

Here is a book that will appeal to ex-navy personnel as well as those who enjoyed "The Cruel Sea". A gripping story of minesweepers and the men who served aboard during the last war, with episodes and characters which come to life for the reader. A definite "must" for the readers who like action.
