Salary and T.-M. must relay the last half of the 7th inning of their game which Salary had "won" 13-7. This 1/2 inning took 5 minutes to play and Salary again won this game by the same score.

The two teams then played their postponed game of June 21st which Salary easily won by a 10 - 2 score.

Stan Swaresh pitched very good ball for Salary, giving up only 3 hits and practically getting a shutout. Stan missed it when he hesitated on a throw to first for the 3rd out, thus allowing one run to score. The next man singled to score a second run, but this was all Stan gave up.

Salary got 16 hits and backed up its hitting with 2 double plays and only committing one error.

Joe Heenan hit 3 for 4, for Salary's best effort.

The unclaimed $8.50 draw prize was carried forward to Sunday.

Sunday afternoon T.-M. met Shift #1 in the longest, but not best, game of the year. T.-M. finally won the game by an 18-15 score, coming up with 11 runs in the 3rd inning on 6 hits and 9 walks. This is the year's biggest inning.

Shift #1 carried a 12-4 lead into the last of the 3rd, though this was soon wiped out by those 11 big runs of T.-M. The last 4 innings were good innings - each team scoring 3 runs.

Although #1 outhit T.-M. by a 17-9 margin, T.-M. got 14 walks to only 5 for #1. This proved to be the margin of victory for T.-M.

Gordie Black got a dandy bases-loaded homer for #1, bringing in 4 runs. Both he and Dick Marcella hit 3 for 4. Tony Delaronde was T.-M.'s stick star, getting 3 for 5.

No one claimed the $9.85 draw prize. It was carried forward to Monday night.

Monday night Shift #2 beat Shift #4-Structural by a 6 - 2 score. This was a very fast (55 min.) and nice game to watch. Both Ed Aho and Nick Chopty were in good form. Ed only gave up 4 hits, while walking none and striking out 5. Nick walked none, struck out 2, and was touched for 7 hits. However, with a little better support behind

Nick Shift #4 could have made it a really fight game.

In the 4th inning Shift #2 scored 4 runs on 3 hits and 4 errors. Shift #4 should have gotten out of this inning without a run scoring, but some real "skulls" and bad errors handed the game to #2.

No doubt about it #2 certainly took advantage of the breaks and deserved to win this game. In case everyone doesn't know by now, Shift #2 has clinched the #1 playoff position.

For #4, Cliff Wood got 2 for 3, while Don Anderson and Bill Kurylo each got 2 for 3 for #2.

#2	0	0	0	4	2	0	0	6	7	2	0	2	1
#4	1	0	0	0	0	0	0	1	4	4	0	5	0

No one seems to want the draw prize money. There was no winner Monday nite and now our "pot" is worth $12.30. Maybe somebody will win Wednesday nite.

Last night Salary met Shift #2 in an interesting ball game which #2 won by the score of 9 - 6.

The game see-sawed back and forth for the first 4 1/2 innings. Shift #2 took an early 3 - 0 lead on the strength of Paul Pluta's home run in the first inning. Salary scored 2 in the 3rd and took a 5-3 lead when Murdo Campbell blasted a 3 run homer in the 4th. Both teams then scored a run and the score stood 6 - 4 going into the last half of the 5th. Shift #2 clinched the game in this inning when they scored 5 runs on 4 hits 2 walks and one costly error.

Salary loaded the bases in the 7th with one out on 2 hits and a walk, but Eddie Aho easily got the last 2 men to get out of the jam and win his 13th game.

Cook got 3 hits in 4 trips for #2 while Paul Pluta hit a 2 run homer. Murdo Campbell hit a 3 run home for Salary.

Mary Hale happened to be on hand when ticket #16 - 363 was called. She had the lucky second half and so was the winner of the biggest draw prize this year - $16.45. "Curly" Hale, the Ump. behind the plate, really beamed when Mary walked up to claim her loot.
