Archie James and Stu Harrison of Marathon were re-elected president and secretary-treasurer respectively. As an extra to the duties of vice-president Bill will be responsible for the appointing of all referees and other officials necessary at all games.

The increased schedule is expected to get started immediately after Christmas and will provide each entry with twelve home games and twelve away games.

It is hoped that small pocket schedules may be made available for the use of hockey fans. However, each team will be held responsible for their own advertising of games.

Trophies available to the North Shore Hockey League are as follows:

1. The Therrien Trophy to team winning Championship
2. The O'Keefe Brewery Trophy to the Leading Scorer.
3. The Nesco Trophy to the Most Valuable Goal Tender
4. The Kapitan Trophy to the Most Sportsmanlike Player
5. C.R. Strachan Jewellers Ltd. are awarding two Lord Rodney Automatic Waterproof Men's wrist watches to two players of the League - recipients to be decided by the Board of Governors.
