ANNUAL HALLOWEEN PARTY HELD SAT. OCTOBER 30

On Saturday, October 30th, 1954. the Kiwanis Club of Terrace Bay held their Annual Halloween Party in the High School Auditorium. The party was for all children up to and including age 13. And all children in Terrace Bay up to age 13 must have been at the party.

The party began at 6:30 p.m.

M. O. Nelson was master of ceremonies. The children began parading around the hall in respective age groups to qualify for the prizes. All the children's costumes were excellent and the judging job was a difficult one. Miss Fran Caddy and Mrs. Barbara Brady were the judges.

The prize winners were as follows:

✓ Best Dressed Boy up to 7 years - Ted Brown
Best Dressed Girl up to 7 years - Joanne Brown
Best Dressed Boy 8 - 9 - 10 years - Owen Turner
Best Dressed Girl 8 - 9 - 10 years - Kathy Cavanaugh
Best Dressed Boy 11 and up - George Denis
Best Dressed Girl 11 and up - Sandra Locking
Best Comic - Jackie Jessop
Most Original - Ronnie Schock
Judge's Award - Jeannine Briggs

The treasure hunt must have been a tough one for neither the Junior or Senior treasures were found.

Following the judging the clowns did several acts one act in particular being a successful operation by "the Doctor" on a sick clown.

An elephant and a horse were very much in evidence at the party and they probably were the star attractions of the show.

Two movies were also shown to the children. The party concluded at 8:30 with the children being given a bag of treats as they left the hall.

Halloween night concluded with the High School Students Council holding a very successful Halloween frolic.
