LARGEST CIRCULATION IN TERRACE BAY

November 11, 1954.

REMEMBRANCE DAY DINNER NOVEMBER 11, 1954.

Tonight, November 11, at the Hotel Terrace, the veterans of World War I and II will attend a dinner to pay tribute to those gallant men and women who gave their lives for their country.

This is the third annual Armistice Dinner to be held in Terrace Bay, which is a fitting and proper gesture.

Everyone should pause on Remembrance Day to pay solemn tribute to the men and women of indomitable spirit and courage who gave their lives to preserve the kind of freedom we enjoy in this country.

Dr. John McCrae's poem is most appropriate to read again on this Remembrance Day.

IN FLANDERS FIELDS

In Flanders fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place; and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly,
Scarce heard amid the guns below.

We are the Dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved, and now we lie
In Flanders fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe:
To you from failing hands we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high.
If ye break faith with us who die,
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders fields.

- John McCrae.
