LIBRARY NEWS

We wish to announce that commencing Monday, November 22nd, the Terrace Bay Public Library will be located in the Recreation Centre. The new library is the room opposite the Snack Bar and the hours for the time being will be the same as heretofore.

We also wish to announce the addition of a record library which will operate under the same principle as our book library. These are classic and semi-classic recordings, and are available to adults only.

Invitation to Minerva - March Cost

In the year 1921, Princess Victoria invited several guests to dinner at her Chateau in Austria. Some came with hat, some love, others for duty, sanctuary and health. In the midst of gaiety and intrigue graced by elegance and tradition their ordeal began when an avalanche buried them under a mountain of snow. A delightful story, beautifully written.

The Two Jacks - Will R. Bird

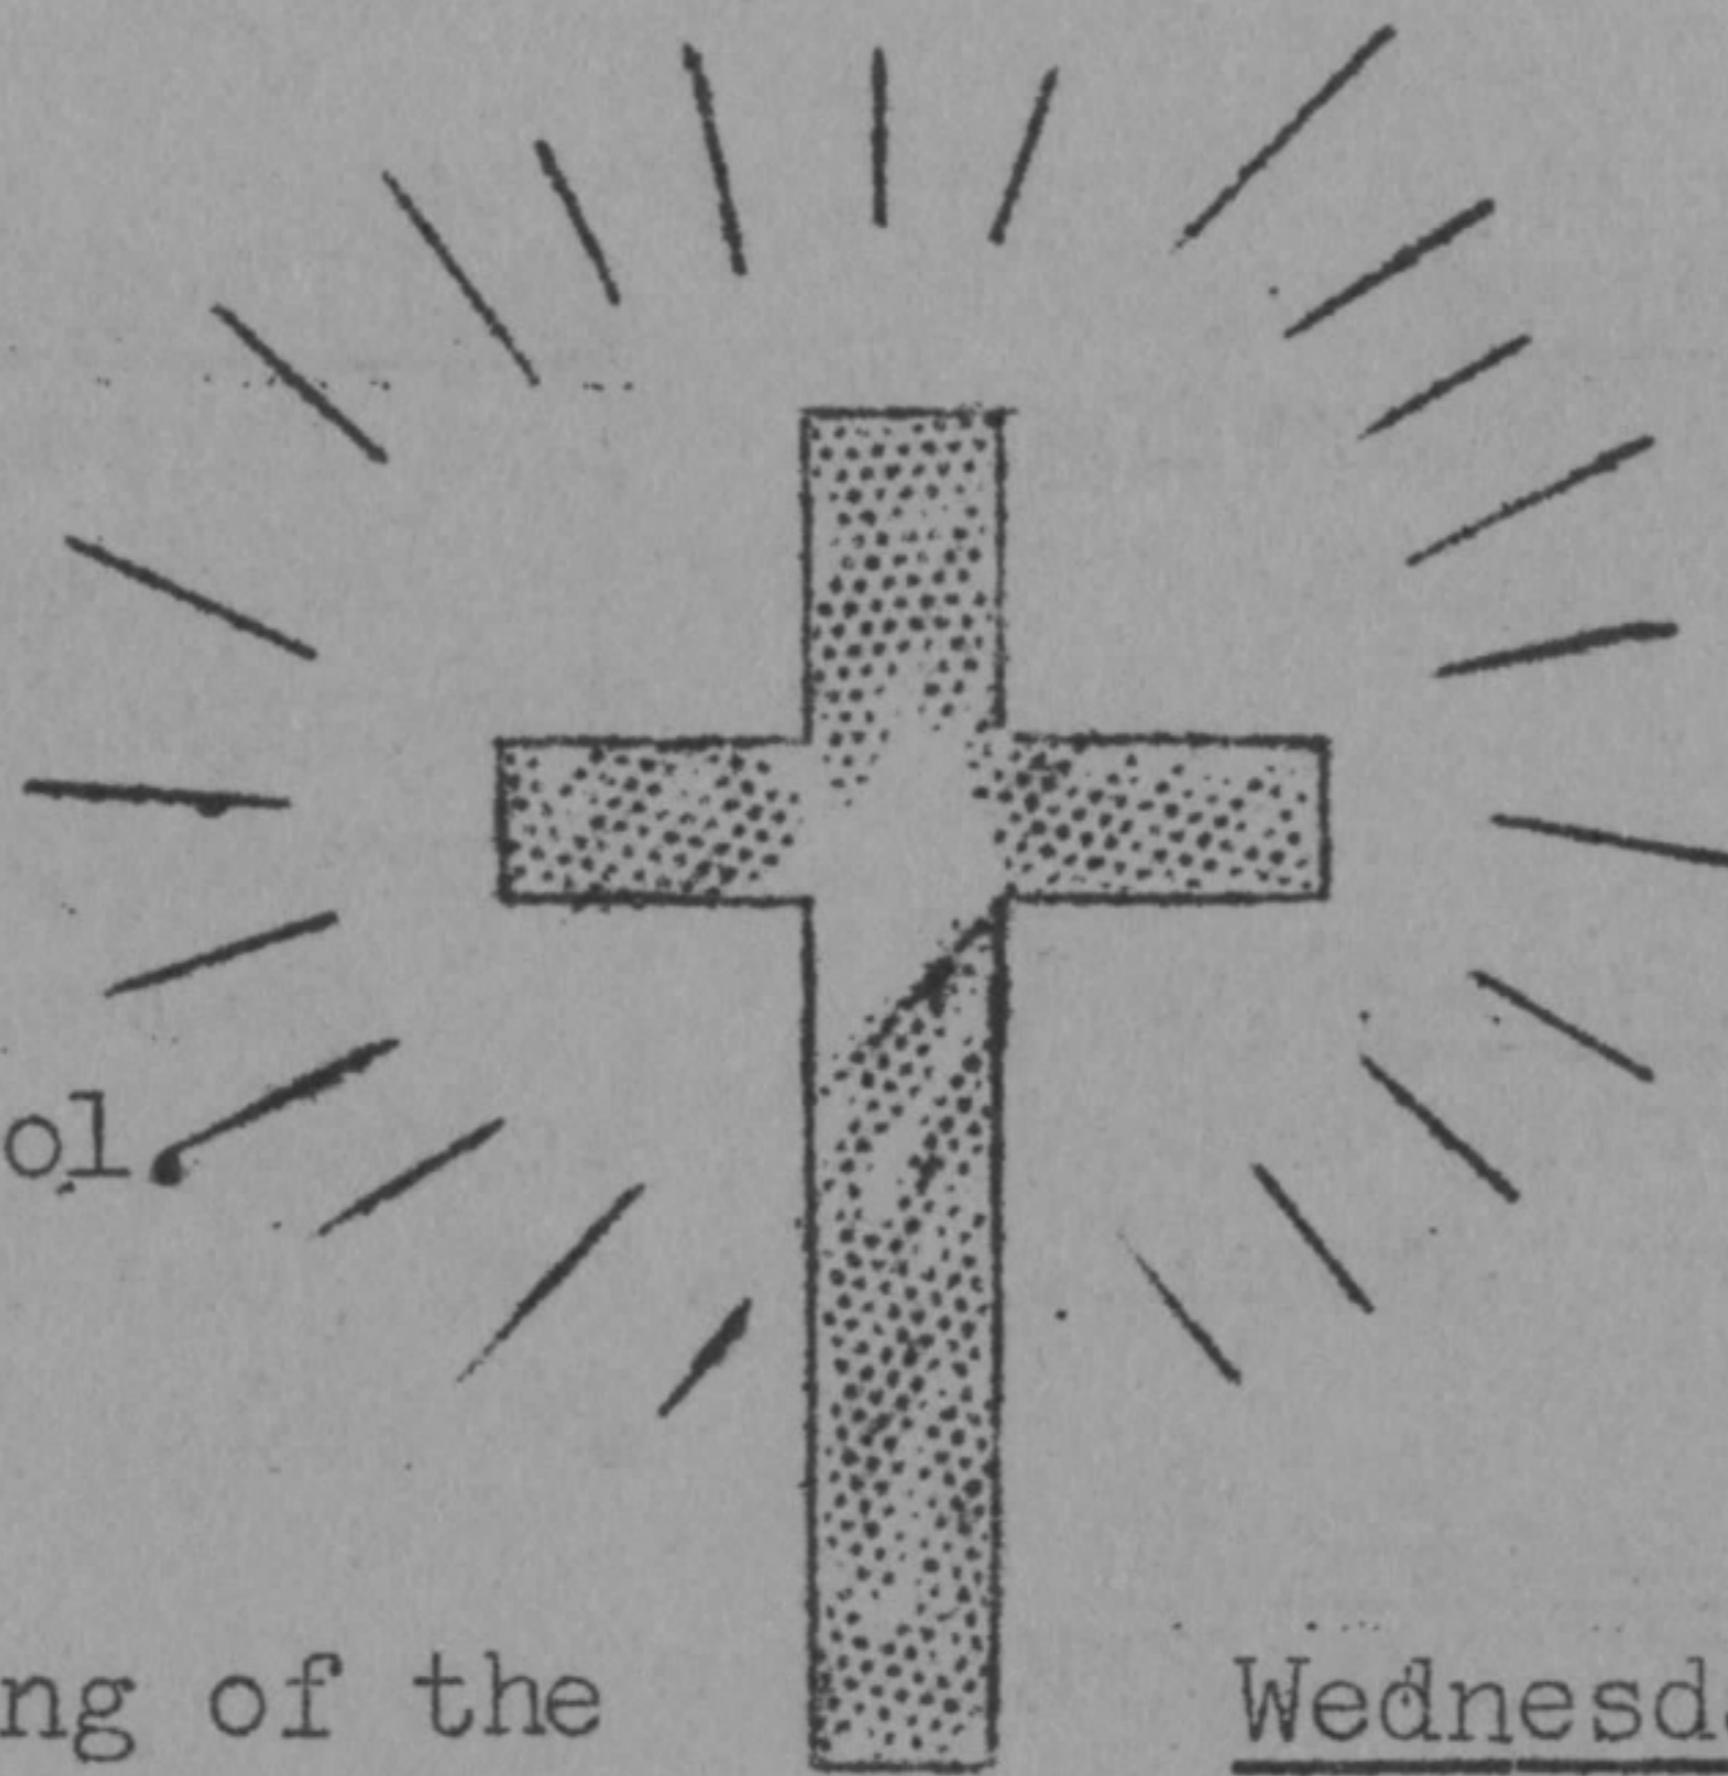

The thrilling account of two Canadians, Jack Fairweather and Jack Veness. In action on D. Day both were taken prisoners of war. This is the

C.W.L. BAZAAR SUCCESSFUL

A successful tea and bazaar was realized Saturday afternoon in the St. Martin's Parish Hall by the C.W.L. under the convenorship of Mrs. M. Hale.

White and pink flowers lighted by white tapers in crystal holders formed the tea arrangements. Tea was served under the convenorship of Mrs. B. Cavanaugh assisted by Mrs. I. Nicol. Pouring tea for the first hour were Mrs. R. Gombola and Mrs. A. Checkryn and for the second hour were Mrs. J. Semeniuk and Mrs. N. Cavanaugh.

Mrs. K. Anderson assisted by Mrs. M. Flater convened the bake table. The sewing table was under the convenorship of Mrs. G. MacDonald and Mrs. D. Campbell. Mrs. J. Semeniuk assisted by Mrs. B. Eaton conducted the sale on novelties.

Mrs. W. Shynkaryk and Mrs. J. Kenney sold potted plants.

Mrs. R. Corrigan and Mrs. N. Gillis sat at the knitting table and looking after the candy were Mrs. R. Connors ably assisted by Misses M. Morin and A. Morin.

The Parcel Post was attended by Mrs. R. Slattery and Mrs. Betty Pineault. Cecile Boudreau and Gay Roy handled the fish pond. Rosalie Savoy attended the religious articles. Mrs. A. Marcell was in charge of the quilt which was won by Mrs. F. Ginn.
