LITTLE TOWN

I like to live in a little town where the trees meet across the street, where you wave your hand and say: "Hello!" to everyone you meet.

I like to stand for a moment outside the grocery store and listen to the friendly gossip of the folks that live next door.

For life is interwoven with the friends we learn to know and we hear their joys and sorrows as we daily come and go.

So I like to live in a little town. I care no more to roam.

For every house in a little town is more than a house, it's home.

ZAFF A LITTLE

Their cars having collided, Jack and Pat were surveying the situation. Jack offered Pat a drink. Pat drank and Jack returned the bottle to his pocket.

"Aren't you going to have a drink yourself?" said Pat.

"Not until the polic have been here", said Jack.
