LIBRARY NEWS

House Party ----- Virginia Rowan

A humorous and entertaining story of a Fourth of July long week-end houseparty at which Mrs. Ames plays hostess to twelve ill-assorted house guests. The characters, incidents and lively dialogue will without doubt amuse you from beginning to end.

Saddlebag Surgeon ----- Robert Tyre

This is the story of Dr. O'Brien who was born in India and educated in England. He set out for Canada when he failed on his final examination at Medical College working at various occupations he finally saved enough money to enter Manitoba Medical College. After graduating he set up practice first in Dominion City, Manitoba. In May 1946 at the age of 78 he moved to Qu'Appelle Saskatchewan where he is still in practice. A thoroughly enjoyable account of his life and experiences.
