LIBRARY NEWS

Me and My Russian Wife - Eddy Gilmore

The author was the head of the Moscow Bureau of the Associated Press and this is his personal account of the twelve years he spent behind the Iron curtain. There he met his beautiful wife. Written by a first-class reporter the story is amusing and most interesting as he relates incidents of international hi-jinks and a marriage suffering from wed-war frostbite.

The Long Watch - Robert F. Mirvish

The story of a rather terrifying voyage aboard the "Morning Pride" a wreck of a tramp steamer manned by an outcast crew. The main characters are a radio operator
