JACK WELLINGS RINK WIN FIVE GAMES OUT OF SEVEN IN NORTHWEST CURLING ASSOCIATION PLAY-DOWNS

The best eight rinks in Northwest Ontario met in Fort William on February 7th, 8th and 9th to decide the Northwestern Ontario "champ" to play-off with Northern Ontario to represent Northwest and Northern Ontario in the Dominion Curling Championship.

The eight zone winners playing at the Lakehead were Fort William, Port Arthur, Terrace Bay, Kenora, Atikokan, Red Lake, Hornpayne and Sioux Lookout.

Terrace Bay drew the tough Fort William rink for their first game on Monday, February 7th, and they upset the experts by beating them. On Monday afternoon Terrace Bay beat the Red Lake entry. Monday evening the Port Arthur rink upset Terrace Bay for their first loss.

On Tuesday morning the highly rated Jim Guy rink from Kenora handed Terrace Bay rink its second and last defeat. From there on in Atikokan, Hornpayne and Sioux Lookout went down to defeat by Terrace Bay, the Sioux Lookout rink giving our boys a tough battle.

After the complete play of round robin curling the top rinks were:

Jim Guy Kenora	6 wins 1 loss
Wyatt MacDonald F.W.	6 wins 1 loss
Jack Wellings, T.B.	5 wins 2 losses
Don McEwan, P. A.	5 wins 2 losses.

So our boys carried the Terrace colours with honors as they were always a threat and had the so called big names in curling worried many times. An indication of how well our rink curled together in official competition this winter is their record of 3 losses in the last 24 consecutive games.

So our boys almost did it - and one of these years a Terrace Bay rink will. The Terrace Bay rink of Jack Wellings, Paul Boudreau, Monty Paget, Harold Marsh are to be congratulated on their fine showing in the Lakehead.

The final of the playdowns saw Jim Guy the winner beating Fort William on Wednesday night by 12-7.
