FIRE PREVENTION NEWS

Children at Play Splash Gasoline 2 Die in Flames

Two children playfully splashed each other with gasoline yesterday, then burned to death as the fumes ignited. Dead were the only children of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Clark, nine-month-old Kathy Remay and Keith Lane, who would have been two, March 26. Firemen said Clark had taken a small jar of gasoline inside to clean his hands. The children got hold of the jar and splashed the gasoline around, then tipped over the jar. The fumes ignited from the bathroom heater.

LAFF A LITTLE

Little Willy rushed breathlessly into the drug store.

"Quick" he panted "My father's hanging by his pants from a barbed wire fence."

"What can I do" asked the drug clerk.

"Put a new roll in my camera" said

Willie.
