HOUSE LEAGUE HOCKEY (Cont.)

In the second period Services started off again with two goals by Zwaresh and Legault with assists from Legault and Zwaresh. Then #2 came up from behind and made two. Marostica and M. Campbell doing the honours with no assists. Paul Pluta was tagged with a penalty in this period.

With five minutes to go in this period Warren Robinson in goal for #2 Shift stopped a hard shot puck and had to receive first aid. He was doing some good work up to this time. Dejonghe replaced him in the net.

The third period was like the rest, fast and good hockey. The Tigers took the points this time with three goals by Janicki, one and Legault two assists going to Beaulieu, Zwaresh and E. Charban.

H. Campbell chalked one up for #2 shift assisted by Marostica. Mikus was in the sin bin this time. The score at the final whistle was 8-4 for Services.

ST. MARTIN'S SCHOOL JUNIOR RED CROSS BAKE SALE

The Ontario Junior Red Cross with its many opportunities for service has the endorsement of the Department of Education. Each year a campaign for funds for the handicapped and crippled children's work is held. To this end our local school organization at St. Martin's is holding a bake sale on Saturday, March 12, from 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. in the school.

If you wish to replenish the family larder with some fine home made cooking and at the same time help a very worthy cause visit our school and select your needs.
